2. In the amendment filed on 1/28/09, applicant has made changes to the specification and also provided a substitute specification and a statement that the substitute specification does not contain any new mater.
3. It is also noted that in the Appeal Brief filed on 2/24/10, applicant has provided his arguments to show that the device as claimed is not disclosed by the prior art used to reject the pending claims 1-8, 10, 12-14 and 16-17 as set forth in the Office action of 12/4/08 (Note that claim 9 was indicated as an allowable claim in the mentioned Office action and claims 11 and 15 were canceled by the applicant in the amendments filed on 3/17/06 and 8/29/08, respectively).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-10, 12-14 and 16-17 are allowed.
6. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The method of automatically focusing a microscope as recited in each of independent claims 1 and 9 and the microscope as recited in the independent claim 12 is patentable with respect to the prior art by the limitations related to the step of utilizing an imaging system for receiving light reflected from an object wherein the reflected light is split into at least two images from eccentric sections of an imaging pupil differentially displaced from the optical axis and the step of using the separations of the images to determine a focus condition. It is noted that the use of the step of utilizing an imaging system for receiving light reflected from an object wherein the reflected light is split into at least two images from eccentric sections of an imaging pupil differentially displaced from the optical axis is not disclosed by the prior art.

The examiner regrets allowance after filing of an appeal brief by applicant. However, the applicant's arguments in the appeal brief are persuasive on the issue of the novelty of the inventive device.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
